ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

-1881--

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, begun in 1709, is the oldest newspaper in the State, and the only daily published in Northern Virginia. It has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives, too, not in decay, but full of life and vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest judgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but three exceptions, the only paper between Baltimore and highmond that is thus connected with the great founteins of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as past experience justides the proprietor to believing will add to the capacity of the Gazatta to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

To meet all the demands upon it, the Gazette will be made a WASHINGTON and RICH-MOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEX. ANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of past years has left little to improve, but yot greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments,

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazatte will be filled with the earliest and most exact com nercial news, edited with such painstaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of cattle will appear.

The Flour, Grain and Produc - movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandris and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epito mized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c , which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gazatte offer inducements which experience has shown to af ford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.

ence, Elie coun y, N. Y. He owns a good farm, and has a wife and three daughters, the youngest of these, Katis, being a handsome girl of seventeen. Two years ago the quiet of the neighborhood was disturbed by reports of and his family were bewitched, but that his cows, herse, poul ry and dogs were victims of wile er it. Ais bens took to crowing and his rossters to cacking, clucking and wanting to set. His cows because dry. At times his horses became so vicious that it was impossible to appresenthem. A lavori e dog disappeared one day. He f und it in a hollow tree two days stierward, in-ide of a pillow case which had been on the grass bleaching.

nouse and the inclements of the fara b came use nire table. Beder faquen ly tound bimself trying to carve his meat with the potato masher, or some ohr odd thing. Once he come to himself in the top of an apple tree. He imagined himself a circus rider at another time, and mounted one of his cows and rade around the pastere lot with his face toward the cow's tail which he grasped and twisted to make the animal go. The chairs in the house would jump away when members of the family were about to six down, tumbitug them upon

The Bender girls were seen once, two of them stride a rati face , and h other perched ou a ferce post. They said they were chickens and and gone to roost. These and many other coo p ricities of the family created periodic d sepsations to he towe. Secret the residents secuted the idea of witele aft, and declared hat the Beaders w re either or, z or were im-

B ader and his family ownge that their troubles were due to the influence of one of their neighbors, a most estimable lady, whom they declared was a witch. This belief was shared by a few of the Clarence people. O hers expressed the opioion that, there having been some difficulty between the lady and Bouder, the latter was endeavoring to create a feeling against her to the community that would work to her disadvantage.

Last fall a favorite cow of Bender's died. He dragged its carcass into the woods. Two week afterwards, he says, he was going through the words. As he approached the place where the carcuss lay it erese and walked toward him. H . ran home to a great fright, and determined to seek the aid of one Benedie Schmidt, an econtrie person, who lived in the woods two mues from Bender's. Sebmidt had the reputation in the neighborhood of being possessed of mag cal powers as a fortune teller and dector. Notwithstanding that he was over 60 years of age and very repulsive in appearance, he prevailed upon a hands me girl named Josephine Smith less than 20 years of age, to marry him three y are ago. She went to live with him in his miserable hus in the words, He treated her so oruelly that she left him in a short time.

Smoking and Chewing Tobacco, lited the Bonder farm. After examining the family, he declared that they were all bewitched. He said he could sure them if they would follow his advice. He precured a large tub. Over this he constructed a platform of parrow boards, with an open space between each board, He filled the tub with boiling water. The saam from the water rose between the slats. Upon the platf rm be said it would be neces sary for each of the patients to lie, one after the other. The steam would drive the witches

The dector's directions were followed under his personal sup rvision. The father and mother were cured after a few visits of Schmidt, The girl's cases, he said, were more subboro. The two older on s were finally pronoueced cured. Schmidt then said he would have to obsege the ic be if his operations to his own house. The fa nily went to Schmid's. Katie was now the orly violim of the witches. The prescription was changed. In addition to the steaming operation above dose ited, Schmidt said it would be necessary for the rest of the family to join bands around the tub, and dance about it, while the steaming of the youngest daughter was in process. Even this remarkable warefare on the witch that still possessed Katie although carried on until two weeks ago, fuled to drive the evil spirit away. Then Schmidet said the girl must become his w is to perfect her cure. The couple went to Justice of the Peace Breeman, and requested to be married. The justice was warned that Schmit had a wife living. Schmidt declared to the justice that it was necessary that the gir should be married to him. The officer married

Great indignation was aroused in the town. Joseph Ray, acob Hannell and Latent Cun-ningham, on zons of the place, made a charge of bigamy against rehmidt, and a warrant for strest on the charge was issued by the justice who had married him to Katte Bender. He was arrested last week. The neighbors were so anraged by Schmidt's crimes that they gathered together for the purpose of lynching him. He was saved by the prompt action of officers in removing him by strategy to the Kire county
